What is THINGloss?

THINGloss* is an all-natural, high-quality lip gloss that combines the most desired features of a lip gloss—moisture and high shine—with additional benefits. THINGloss contains popular crave-controlling ingredients such as: HOODIA and Kola Nut (found in South Africa) that work transdermally. For aromatherapy, specific essential oils have been added to enhance the crave-controlling effects. THINGloss is also infused with vibrational healing energies to uplift your spirits. Additional benefits include: vitamin E (a natural antioxidant) for added environmental protection in all weather conditions and a touch of lip plumping agents to give you fuller, sexier lips. THINGloss is non-sticky and smooths on easily for even, sheer color that lasts.

Two colors to choose from: “Kiss Me, I’m Single” and “Whole Wheat Hottie”.

Is THINGloss FDA certified?

Like most cosmetics you see in department stores and drug stores, THINGloss* is considered a cosmetic and has not been evaluated by the FDA. THINGloss is made to enhance your personal beauty goals to help you feel better fast. We are currently checking into the opportunity of facilitating clinical trials and/or focus groups. In the meantime, we want to hear from you. We want to know how THINGloss is working for you. You may email us your comments at april.morris@expresseffects.com.

Tell me about the quality of your product. Is it safe?
